

Message Summary: The quality, comfort, and success of a journey depend largely on the conditions of the road, the company you keep, and the destination you're heading for. False teachers and their devotees guarantee a perilous voyage and a bad finish! Today we are challenged to live cautiously as we make progress in our journey of faith and to watch out for ruts.

Let's Do It God's Way

1 Chronicles 13:5-14; 15:1-4

- 1. We need to do things God's way (Mt. 6:33)
- 2. We need to do things in God's time (Ps. 119:105)
- 3. We need to do God's work with God's people (Eph. 4:11)
- 4. We can't take the presence of God lightly (Rev. 4:3-8)
