

Message Summary: Two men, two lives, two different sets of values. One wanted an altar, the other wanted allurements. One wanted the altar of God, the other wanted the allurements of the world. One was driven by the promises of God, the other was driven by his senses. You could look at it this way: Lot got grass for his cows. Abram got grace for his kids. Oh he didn't have any kids but he will. God promises he'll have so many of them he can't count them. As we study Genesis, you may find striking parallels between Abraham's life and your own experiences.
